Application

Regina Catholic School Division (RCSD) shall maintain student accident insurance coverage, subject to the terms, conditions, exclusions, eligibility requirements, and limits of the policy in effect. Participation in school programs and activities does not create a right to compensation, reimbursement, or insurance benefits beyond those provided by the insurer.

Parents and guardians remain responsible for obtaining and maintaining any personal medical, dental, travel, disability, life, or accident insurance they consider necessary for their child.

Where available, RCSD may distribute information regarding voluntary student accident insurance programs offered by a third-party provider. Registration, coverage decisions, premiums, claims, disputes, and policy administration remain the responsibility of the insurer and the parent or guardian. RCSD does not guarantee coverage, approve claims, or provide advice regarding the suitability of any insurance product.
